

Triangle Trails

Draw a continuous path connecting the entry arrow with the exit arrow without passing through any triangle more than once. A value within a cell indicates the number of adjacent triangles (sharing a side) through which the trail must pass. The path cannot pass through a numbered cell.

